

Become a CIPS Designee in 5 Easy Steps

For International REALTORS® (excluding Canada)

1 COURSEWORK

You must complete 5 CIPS courses to be able to apply for the CIPS Designation. Each course is 8 hours long and may be taken in person, live-virtual or online. Check off each course as you complete them.

Core CIPS courses (required):

- Global Real Estate: Local Markets
- The Business of U.S. Real Estate

Regional CIPS courses: (choose 3)

- Europe & International Real Estate
- Asia/Pacific & International Real Estate
- The Americas & International Real Estate
- Africa & International Real Estate

Optional - You may substitute ONE CIPS regional course with one of the following:

- Resort and Second-Home Property Specialist Certification Course
- Pricing Strategies: Mastering the CMA

2 COMPLETING YOUR APPLICATION

After you have completed the coursework, you may then begin your CIPS designation application. The application form consists of several categories measuring your international expertise. Each category is given a specific number of points. While you are not required to complete each section, responses you provide must total 100 points.

- Accrued at least 100 points on application

PAYMENT

Your application must be accompanied by payment of your US$300 one-time application fee. Your payment will NOT be processed until your application has been approved. Once you have chosen a payment method, check one of the boxes below.

Note you may initially notice a pending transaction on your account when you submit a credit card payment.*

- Authorized credit card payment
- Wire transfer
(contact cips@nar.realtor for details).

5 APPLICATION REVIEW

Due to the volume of applications NAR receives, it can take 2 to 4 weeks for your application to be reviewed. If NAR requires any other information to approve your application, you will be notified. We appreciate your patience during the review process. Check the box below once NAR confirms your application has been received.

NAR has received application

You Have Applied - What's Next?

After NAR approves your application, your payment will be processed and your designation awarded. You will receive an email confirmation notifying you of your application's approval and outlining your new benefits. You may begin using the CIPS designation and accessing the benefits as soon as you receive the congratulations email.

Maintaining Your Designation

Once you become a CIPS designee you are also an International REALTOR® of NAR. To remain an active CIPS designee, you will need to pay your International REALTOR® (IRM) dues every year. You will receive communication from NAR on renewing your dues.
