Discovering Commercial Real Estate Course

Instructor Application

The goal of Discovering Commercial Real Estate is to introduce the basics of commercial real estate to residential agents, and to those new to commercial real estate. It will not teach any participant how to practice commercial real estate, but rather the fundamentals, terminology, and resources available, should they wish to pursue a career in commercial real estate.

To be considered as an authorized instructor for the course, please complete this form and provide at least 3 letters of reference or recommendations. REBAC staff will review your application and formally invite you to be an instructor.
